

Red Thread

foundation for women

MISSION: To provide women of international backgrounds with mentorship and financial support in order to help them succeed academically and professionally. The Red Thread Foundation envisions a world where all women, regardless of their place of origin or socioeconomic status, can realize their potential to lead empowered, fulfilled lives.

ABOUT THE FELLOWSHIP: The recipient will receive a one-year $1,000 scholarship to offset the cost of university education, ranging from tuition to books. She will also be privy to unique mentorship opportunities with the associates of the Red Thread Foundation.

ABOUT THE ASSOCIATES: The Red Thread Foundation was founded by ten women of multicultural backgrounds who attended university in the U.S. and benefitted from scholarships and related initiatives to make their education possible. Now, board members and associates employ a “pay-it-forward” approach in order to enable other women to benefit from the support and financial assistance that they enjoyed themselves.

ELIGIBILITY: Women of international background, including foreign students, immigrants, or first-generation Americans, who are first year entrants to a U.S. undergraduate college or university program in fall 2020 are eligible to apply. There are no GPA or U.S. residency requirements.
